

Please do not take away the "Do not Call" list or lessen the restrictions. I am sure you know how annoying it is to come home after a day at work and be bombarded with phone calls, only to pick up and have no one on the other line, anticipating the follow-up call, which will be the next unnecessary call to disrupt an evening.